

Fellow Students and Association Members,

The LSU MBAAA constitution states that the Communications chair is responsible for the following:

- a) be knowledgeable in information technology.
- b) maintain both the website of the Association and the golf tournament website.
- c) disperse weekly emails.
- d) be responsible for all the general correspondence of the organization.
- e) be responsible for all elections and verifying eligibility of candidates.
- f) strive to meet the objectives of the MBAA as stated in Article II, Section 1 of the MBAA Constitution.

I believe my qualifications, listed below, demonstrate my ability to successfully and thoroughly satisfy the duties of communications chair. As communications chair, I will disperse weekly emails in a timely manner. All information pertaining to social, academic, and community events will be posted to the website. It is my intent to increase member awareness and participation in MBAA activities through the use of communication software and technology. I will offer my full technological competence to all members of the MBA Association. I will facilitate and assist with any and all communication needs of the organization to the best of my ability.

Qualifications

- Advanced understanding of a variety of programming languages and internet technologies
- Graduate Assistantship with E. J. Ourso College of Business Alumni and External Relations
 - Programmed and implemented new College of Business website to be rolled out near the end of Spring '08
 - Work with faculty, staff, student, and college MSSQL and MS Access databases
- Professional Web Development Experience with Entogy LLC, Houston
 - Designed and updated corporate intranet software used for order processing, manufacturing, and communications purposes
- Department of ISDS Web Administrator, Student Worker
 - Administration of Sharepoint, Websurveyor, and MSDN Library web applications
 - Active Directory
 - Hardware and software troubleshooting